Security and Application development aspects of Network Identity Management

Presentation gives a summary of the most important functions and apsects of Identity management, namely:

- Efficient User Provisioning
- Identity Data Synchronization
- Access Management for Web-based Applications and integrating Java bases applications into access management systems
- Federation Services
- Enterprise-Level Directory Services
- Auditing and Reporting